Subject: Amendment for LRB 1697

Good Morning!

After hearing from some groups, my boss would like an amendment for LRB 1697 that would limit liability for organizations that rehabilitate fighting dogs, and to also give DATCP the right to enact their own rules regarding temperament tests and establishing regulations for the rehabilitation of fighting dogs.

If you have any questions you can give me a call. Thank you!

Katherine Bates:

This is a preliminary draft of the amendment to Assembly bill 230. Please review the draft carefully. The instructions were not specific in all respects, so I may not have accurately captured your intent.

There are many different approaches limiting civil liability. One option would be to provide that if DATCP promulgates rules on rehabilitating dogs, a rehabilitator would not be immune if he or she failed to comply with the rules. We can discuss this and other approaches if you wish.

Please contact me with any questions or redraft instructions.
